The Sustainability of NIPNs: Niger's approach

Mrs Omar Haoua Ibrahim,
SG INS

Amsterdam May 2019

- A sustainability study for the NIPN included in the subsidy contract;
- Taking into account of the sustainability dimension in the background of all actions;
- Formal and informal discussions with the stakeholders at the various meetings;

- Funding of the NIPN over five years;
- Rooting of the NIPN within the INS (National Institute for Statistics) and HC3N;
- Gradual engagement of the sectors;
- Consensus regarding ever-increasing interest;
- Increased and urgent expectations of the analysis results

- Panel on nutrition concepts during training;
- Adoption of NIPN governance bodies
- Close monitoring by the DUE of the sustainability issue
- Production
- Web portal

- Take inspiration from the past experiences of the INS (e.g. ONAPAD);
 - ✓ Propose institutionalization scenarios;
 - ✓ Analyze the implications of institutionalisation;
- Ensure continuing dialogue on the policies within HC3N
 - ✓ Continuity of framework analysis plans;
 - ✓ Use of the evidence generated;
 - ✓ Leadership to ensure the commitment of the sectors in the long term (integration of NIPN activities into annual and multi-annual plans)

After the future institutionalization of NIPN, the following actions should be consolidated:

- Analysis production;
- User satisfaction;
- Strong leadership at operational and strategic level
- Securing of a strong political commitment;

Thank you for listening
